About Souvenir Expo

“Souvenir” is generally used to describe the concept of Touristic Souvenirs, stands out more and more in parallel with the development of the tourism sector in our country. Especially when we travel to a new place, all the gifts we take for ourselves and our loved ones, or when we visit our loved ones living elsewhere, all the products we need in the summer resorts are included in this scope. With its export volume to many countries in the world and its significant production capacity. It is predicted that the awareness of the sector will increase with the Indian Souvenir Expo- Souvenirs and Touristic Gifts Exhibition.
